

6th Annual Conejos Superfly
2nd Annual Guide Edition
April 23-24

This is an opportunity for all of you guides and industry professionals to take the gloves off for a 2 day fly fishing tournament on the Conejos River. In the past the guides and amateurs fished together in this event but this year for the second time we are going to have a separate event for the guides and prof's with a slightly a different format. Please read the details carefully before submitting an entry. The proceeds from this weekend will go to the Conejos Habitat Project which just completed its first section of river. Another section will should be completed this fall!

- 2-Man Teams
- 1 Angler fishing at a time
- 18 -24 teams
- Composite score for 2 days. No cut to be made as in years past
- There will be 24 beats. Split in 2 different pools. You will fish a day from each "pool" of beats
- Entry fee 195.00 per person. Includes catered parties, prizes, swag, Simms shirt or jacket, Hat, casting competition, access to private water.
- Saturday there will be a party at Conejos Ranch with music, libations, and food' Possibly a trout flick.
- Sunday afternoon at Conejos Ranch there will be a casting competition, awards ceremony, and food
- Scoring is the same as the Original Superfly. Each anglers largest fish counts as a point per inch. Subsequent fish are Bows = 1, Browns = 2 Cutts (not cuttbows) = 3 Brookies = 4. Team scores will be added together to determine Champion. No cut. If one of the anglers on the team should not land a fish there will be a 0 on that side of the scoring column.
- Catch and release, barbless hooks, fish must be netted to count.
- Each team must have a measuring tape, net, and digital camera to document largest fish.
- Each day a 700.00 custom Sage rod will be given away to the largest fish. As well as another pair of rods given away to the winning team.
- To be held rain, snow, or shine. High water or low. Muddy or ice chunks drifting. In years past we have had perfect clear water and last year big muddy water so don't come unless you know we could get anything!
- No refunds after March 30.
- First 24 teams in. In years past this has filled extremely quickly so please if you are interested please get your entry in. Questions let us know. Hope to see you there!
